

Joana Fuller talks about how poverty affects her students in and out of her classrooms. Joana's job helps the systems that are composed of subsystems and parts by getting them their supplies that are necessary. Melissa Martinez talks about how poverty affects her clients in their life with poverty. Melissa's job helps to complete a task or a mission by helping her clients to fix their economical problems. Errol Sosa talks about how poverty affects his patients health due to their environment and to help them get medication. He explains how poverty is composed of subsystems and parts.